TERMS AND CONDITIONS – DIRECT DEBIT SERVICE AGREEMENT

Through the Direct Debit (DDR) you are allowing us to debit your Bank/Credit Union/Building Society account fortnightly. This also allows you to vary the amount of withdrawal from time to time in accordance with the rates of contribution as per the registered rules of the Communications, Electrical, Plumbing Union.

We will notify you at least 14 days before making any changes to this agreement.

We will always try to debit your account as per your instructions, except when the due date falls on a public holiday. In this case we will debit your account on the previous working day.

That your nominated account can accept direct debits and that you always have enough cleared funds in your account on the drawing date for us to debit and that you advise us if the nominated account is transferred or closed. If your direct debit is returned or dishonoured by your financial institution, we will attempt to contact you to arrange payment of any outstanding membership fees. A returned or dishonoured payment does not constitute termination of this agreement.

All customer records and account details will be kept private and confidential to be disclosed only at the request of the Customer or Financial Institution in connection with a claim made to an alleged incorrect or wrongful debit.

If you want to make changes to the debit arrangements, contact the CWU office by phone on 3255 0440 or by email via comms@cwuqld.asn.au

These changes may include:

- Advising us of new bank account details.
- Deferring the direct debit.
- Stopping the direct debit.
- Cancelling the direct debit.

Direct all enquiries to us, rather than your financial institution. All communication addressed to us should include your full name, membership number and contact phone number.

If you believe that a direct debit has been initiated incorrectly we encourage you to take up the matter with us by phone on 3255 0440 or email via comms@cwuqld.asn.au

Membership with the Union is continuous and contributions are payable in advance. Members should note that if you resign or retire from your employment it is your responsibility (not your employers) to notify the Union is writing of your resignation from the Union. If you are still employed and wish to resign, 2 weeks' notice must be given.

Any questions regarding union membership, please contact the CWU Qld Branch on:
